Description

One of the oldest and most historic branches of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Cumberland Valley's history dates back more than two decades before the Civil War. The bustling line connected North and South with bridge traffic and produced plenty of its own revenue into the Penn Central years. The L1 class was right at home here and with the diversity of traffic, the Cumberland Valley made the perfect train set. Headed up by the most famous of the L1's, No. 520, this train has been making working all along its run from Harrisburg to Chambersburg including a carload of apples from the valley's orchards, a new trolley for Chambersburg and a boxcar of munitions for the Naval Supply Depot in Mechanicsburg. A trusty N6B brings up the markers. Of course, all of this traffic traveled far beyond the Valley so no matter where you model this colorful consist can be part of your operations. This set is packed with special features including a FreightSounds boxcar and working Bump-and-go Trolley. Relive the heyday of railroading when the train was the vital link that bound communities with the world.
